Please join us for this interactive workshop dedicated to helping you develop effective parenting skills

About the workshop: This four session workshop is for parents of children of all ages. We will cover the basics of development, discipline and the challenges of parenting.

- September 29, 2015 – Tuesday 7pm – 9pm - Session One: *Age Appropriate Development
  Know what to expect at every age and stage of development and to recognize warning signs of problematic behavior.
- October 6, 2015 – Tuesday -7pm – 9pm - *Session Two: Challenges of Parenting
  Everyone struggles at one time or another with how to handle various situations. Role play and hands on exercises will give you effective tools to use in these situations.
- October 13, 2015 – Tuesday -7pm – 9pm *Session Three: Behavior Modification
  Learn this simple yet effective technique for getting the behavior you want to see out of your children.
- October 20, 2015 – Tuesday -7pm – 9pm Session Four: *Learning to Let Go
  This session will focus on encouraging appropriate independence and responsibility in your children.

About the Presenter: Sharon Gilbert, LCPC is a psychotherapist in private practice in Naperville. She has been in practice for 20 years and has taught at the college level for 18 years. Her work experience includes being a home day care provider, and many facets of corporate Human Resources. Please visit her website at www.sharongilbertlcpc.com for more information.

Cost: The cost for the workshop is $20 per session. Participants will gain the most from attending all four sessions, but that is not required.

Registration: We are limited to 20 participants per session to allow maximum effectiveness from the activities. Workshop is hosted at School Readiness Center at 430 S. River Rd., Naperville, IL.
